[Third Publication.] The 6th June 1905.

No. 16.—Notification.—It is hereby notified for general information that the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal proposes, under the provisions of sections VI and XI of Act V (B.C.) of 1864, to make the following addendum to the schedule of tells in force on the Calcutta Canals and Tolly's Nala and published in Notification No. 144, dated the 23rd May1893.

W. A. INGLIS, Secy. to the Gost. of Bengal.

13.—During neap-tides, when there is not sufficient water in the Tolly's Nala near Russa for the navigation of boats laden with firewood, they will be allowed to proceed to or from the river Biddiadharee through the Circular Canal on payment of a rate of eight annas per 100 maunds of measured maundage for passage through that canal in addition to the rate ordinarily payable for entering or plying in Tolly's Nala.

For purposes of reckoning demurrage charges under item No. 11 of the schedule, two extra days will be allowed over and above those provided for vessels plying on the Tolly's

Nala.

Boats plying under this concession will not be allowed either to load or to unload along the Circular Canal or river Hooghly. Infringement of this rule will render the boats liable to the ordinary tolls in force for the Circular Canal.

Secy. to the Govt. of Bengal.

Existing rules.

5. The preliminary application for a lease for a term of years, either new or renewal, may be of an informal nature, but it must be in writing. It may be received either at the Subdivisional or Sectional Canal office: in the latter case, the Sectional Officer shall forward it immediately to the Subdivisional Canal Officer.

The Subdivisional Canal Officer as soon as he has, by personal enquiry or by an enquiry made by the Sectional Officer, satisfied himself that the land in question constitutes a definite block, and that it can be irrigated, shall at once inform the Divisional Canal Officer, giving such particulars as that officer may direct, and shall ask his formal approval to the lease being proceeded with. On receipt of such approval, he shall forward the preliminary application to the zilladar in order that the detailed assessment of the block may be taken in hand. A copy of the map alluded to in rule 4 shall be sent with the application, and this constitutes the basis of the assessment.

- 6. The zilladar on receipt of the application shall depute an amin to prepare the khasra or detailed assessment paper. This shall be done on the ground with the aid of the revenue survey map and khasra. Should the survey map and khasra not be available, the amin shall make a sketch map and shall measure the areas with a chain or measuring-rod.
- 9. Should it happen that the cultivators of the block proposed for lease are not unanimous, and that certain of them decline to sign the application, the milladar shall report the matter to the Subdivisional Canal Officer. This officer shall hold a local enquiry,

Proposed rules.

5. The preliminary application for a lease for a term of years, either new or renewal, may be of an informal nature, but it must be in writing. It may be presented at any time; but if presented after the 1st of April in the year during which the lease is to commence, an additional charge of 1 pice per goont of local measure, equivalent to 6 annas 3 pies per mán, will be made for the year following that in which the lease has been applied for.

The Subdivisional Canal Officer shall, at a date not less than three months and not more than six months before the expiry of a lease for a term of years, send a notice in writing to the representative of the cultivators informing him of the fact. Such notice shall request that early intimation may be sent if it is desired to renew the lease, and shall draw attention to the extra charge which will be incurred if the application is presented after the 1st of April.

The preliminary application may be presented either at the Subdivisional or Sectional Canal office. The Subdivisional Canal Officer as soon as he has, by personal enquiry or by an enquiry made by the Sectional Officer, satisfied himself that the land in question constitutes a definite block, and that it can be irrigated, shall at once inform the Divisional Canal Officer, giving such particulars as that officer may direct, and shall ask his formal approval to the lease being proceeded with. On receipt of such approval, he shall forward the preliminary application to the zilladar in order that the detailed assessment of the block may b taken in hand A copy of the map alluded to in rule4 shall be sent with the application, and this constitutes the basis of the assessment.

6. The zilladar on receipt of the application shall depute an amin to prepare the khasra or detailed assessment paper. This shall be done on the ground with the aid of the revenue survey map and khasra. Should the survey map and khasra not be available, the amin shall make a sketch map and shall measure the areas with a chain or measuring-rod.

The amin shall write out daily in the form provided for the purpose abstracts for each cultivator of the entries in the khasra relating to lands in his occupation and shall deliver such abstracts, to the representative for distribution.

9. On the 1st December of each year, or on any subsequent date, the Divisional Canal Officer may decline to proceed with a lesse for a term of years the application for which has not boom fully signed by that date. Provided that the form of application shall have been recording the statements of the persons who decline to sign and recording his personal opinion on the reasons given. He shall then send a report to the Divisional Canal Officer, who shall decide if the lease may be accepted, excluding the fields in the occupation of the persons who decline to sign or whether the lease shall be declined. The Divisional Canal Officer is authorized to grant a lease when not less than 95 per cent. of the net irrigable area of the block has been signed for. In particular cases should it be desirable to grant a lease even though an area larger than 5 per cent. of the block has not been signed for, this may be done on the written order of the Superintending Engineer. The reasons for granting the lease shall be fully recorded.

15. Applicants for a lease for a term of years or for a season lease for the irrigation of autumn rice who may require water before the lease has been concluded can obtain a supply on tendering an application for a provisional lease in the form given as Appendix No. III to these rules. This application must be signed in the presence of the Sectional Officer or of some other responsible officer nominated for the purpose by the Subdivisional Canal Officer. The signatures should be those of the leading outivators in the block in question, and they should represent holders of not less than 75 per cent. of the irrigable land within the block.

As soon as the Subdivisional Canal Officer receives the application duly signed, he shall issue a permit in the form given as Appendix No. VIII to these rules, and shall at once supply water.

- 47. The chankidar of the village or such other representative as, with the consent of a majority of the lessees and with the approval of the Subdivisional Canal Officer, may be appointed for the purpose by the Deputy Collector, or other officer in charge of the Revenue Division, in consideration of his giving assistance in the matters noted below, shall be entitled to free irrigation of lands in his own occupation which may be within the boundaries of a block leased for a term of years, or to which water is supplied under a season lease other than a special lease for dalwa rice provided for in rule 19, subject to a limit of 3 per cent. on the total area assessed:—
  - (i) In assisting the amin while preparing the assessment papers for land, which it is proposed to lease for a term of years, or for lands which have been irrigated under season leases.
  - (ii) In procuring and attesting the signatures to the applications for long leases or for season leases for rice.

tendered to the cultivators through their representative for signature after the adjustment of any matters in dispute with regard to classification or area of land not less than 15 days before the 1st December or subsequent date. Any provisional lease covering the same lands on which a supply of water may have been granted pending the completion of the lease for a term of years shall then become the substantive lease for the season and shall be put in force.

- 9A. Should it happen that the cultivators of the block proposed for lease are not unanimous, and that certain of them decline to sign the application, the zilladar shall report the matter to the Subdivisional Canal Officer. This officer shall hold a local enquiry, recording the statements of the persons who decline to sign and recording his personal opinion on the reasons given. He shall then send a report to the Divisional Canal Officer, who shall decide if the lease may be accepted, excluding the fields in the occupation of the persons who decline to sign or whether the lease shall be declined. The Divisional Canal Officer is authorized to grant a lease when not less than 95 per cent. of the net irrigable area of the block has been signed for. In particular cases should it be desirable to grant a lease even though an area larger than 5 per cent. of the block has not been signed for, this may be done on the written order of the Superintending Engineer. The reason for granting the lease shall be fully recorded
- 15. Applicants for a lease for a term of years or for a season lease for the irrigation of autumn rice who may require water before the lease has been concluded can obtain a supply on tendering an application for a provisional lease in the form given as Appendix No. III to these rules. This application must be signed in the presence of the Sectional Officer or of some other responsible officer nominated for the purpose by the Subdivisional Canal Officer.

As soon as the Subdivisional Canal Officer receives the application duly signed, he shall issue a permit in the form given as Appendix No. VIII to these rules, and shall at once supply water.

- 47. Before any lease other than a special lease for dalwa rice provided for in rule 19 is entered into, the Deputy Collector or other officer in charge of the Revenue Division shall select as representative of the cultivators person or persons who must have a direct interest in the land covered by the lease. The selection shall be made with the consent of a majority of the cultivators having an interest in the lease, and in consultation with the Subdivisional Canal Officer The person or persons so selected shall continue as representative for the village unless he or they resign the office, or unless the Deputy Collector or other officer in charge of the Revenue Division shall, for reasons recorded in writing, remove him or them from the office.
- 47A. The person or persons so selected are required to give assistance in respect of the following matters:—
  - (1) To assist the amin while preparing the assess-
  - ment papers.

    (2) To assist in procuring and to attest the signatures to applications for leases.

* Existing rules.

(iii) In receiving the individual notices of amounts assessed, and in distributing them to the persons concerned.

(iv) In attending when required at enquiries into complaints.

(v) In giving information to the Subdivisional or sectional officers regarding any insufficiency of the supply of water or of any misuse of the supply of water.

(vi) In giving information to the zilladar with respect to alterations in the occupancy of lands under lease for a term of years.

(vii) In assisting the tahsildar in collecting the rates.

RESOLUTION-No. 3770M.

RE-ESTABLISHMENT OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE NADIA MUNICIPALITY.

READ-

Resolution No. 32M., dated the 4th January 1904.

By the orders contained in the Resolution cited above the Commissioners of the Nadia Municipality were superseded for a period of one year under section 65 of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884; and the Government ordered, under section 66, that all their powers and duties should during that period be exercised and performed by Babu Barada Das Basu, Deputy Magistrate, who was at that time Subdivisional Officer of Ranaghat.

2. That period will expire on 5th January 1905. Babu Arun Kumar Bose, Deputy Magistrate, the officer who is at present vested with all the powers and charged with all the duties of the Commissioners of the Nadia Municipality, has submitted a proposal under section 9(e) of the Act that the number of Commissioners should be reduced from twelve to nine; and the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to direct that a notification declaring his intention to issue orders to that effect be published in the next issue of the Calcutta Gazette.

2. The Lieutenant-Governor is also of opinion that it is desirable for the present, in the interests of the town, that the Chairman and the Commissioners shall be appointed by the Local Government. His Honour trusts that it will be possible soon to restore to the Nadia Municipality its former privileges, and the question will be considered on the expiry of another year. Meanwhile the Lieutenant-Governor is pleased to direct, under section 66 of the Act, that this Municipality be entered in both the first and second schedules of the Bengal Municipal Act, 1884.

By order of the Lieutenant-Governor of Bengal,

L. P. SHIRRES, Secretary to the Govt. of Bengal.

Columns are also provided in Form XXIIIB for information required in regard to the names of officers which appeared in Form XXIIIA of the previous year, but are now omitted, as also regarding officers who have been on leave, other than privilege leave, or under suspension, during the previous year. In the case of any who have been under suspension, a note is required stating whether it has been expressly declared that the period of suspension shell count as service qualifying for pension.

(f) If any person on the establishment is a Government pensioner, or is not the servant of the District Board sodely, the fact should be noted in the statement. If he be an officer transferred from the pensionable service of Government, for whose pension contribution is paid, a note should be entered against his name to the effect "Contribution paid to Government for pension."

When completed in accordance with the preceding instructions, the statement should be carefully checked with the service-books, as it will be the authority by which hereafter pension claims will be tested by the Accountant-General.

"24. All money paid into the treasury otherwise than by money-order to the credit of the District Fund, whether by servants of the District Board or others, shall be accompanied by a chalan in Form No. II.

"This chalan shall be in triplicate, having the words 'Original,' 'Duplicate' and 'Triplicate' printed or written in red on the first, second and third parts, respectively. The first part shall be retained by the treasury office, the second part shall be returned on the same day to the office of the District Board, and the third part shall be delivered to the person paying in the money.

"As an exception to the above rule, the payments into the treasury of the rents of pounds and ferries which are administered by Local Boards shall be accompanied by chalans in quadruplicate, and the fourth part shall be sent by the treasury to the office of the Local Board."

- "25. All moneys remitted to the treasury to credit of the District Board, and all payments made by the treasury on cheques or otherwise on account of the District Board, shall be entered in a pass-book; the pass-book shall remain in the custody of the Chairman, and it shall be sent to the treasury on the tenth and also on the last working day of every month and on any other day on which the District Board may require the posting to be done. On receipt of the pass-book by the treasury officials, the receipts and payments up to date, and credits referred to in rules 30 and 31, shall be entered therein, and when the book is received on the last working day of the month the account shall be balanced and signed by the treasury officer, the amount being entered in words as well as figures. The book shall be returned to the office of the District Board as soon as the entries prescribed in this rule have been made in it, i.e., on the day of receipt or the next open day at latest.
